Disability Awareness Week

The Fort Hays Honor Society is hosting Disability Awareness Week March 27th – March 29th. Disability Awareness Week (DAW) features an array of events to spread awareness and increase education about mental health, learning disabilities, and physical disabilities. Activities on Learning Disability Day and Physical Disability Day are planned to help others experience the challenges faced daily by those who are diagnosed with related disabilities. For example, students have the opportunity to experience being wheelchair bound throughout their day to better understand the struggle our peers experience and the reality of the absence of wheel chair accessibility on the FHSU campus. Additionally, a handful of students who personally experience these disabilities have courageously volunteered to share their experiences.

Mental Health Awareness Day focuses on spreading awareness and education to rid of stigmas. In order to successfully do this, we have students with mental health illnesses and professional individuals from the community to share and speak about common mental health illnesses. Physical Disability Day and Learning Disability day both feature activities and informative events to help spread the awareness in an impactful way.

This event focuses on reaching all individuals of our campus community. We encourage all students, faculty, and staff to attend these events to strengthen our knowledge and awareness of these topics and to continue beating the stigmas!

Outline of Disability Awareness Week:

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS DAY: Tuesday, March 27 in the Stouffer Lounge in Memorial Union from 5:00pm to 7:00pm

PHYSICAL DISABILITY DAY: Wednesday, March 28

- Physical Disability Simulations Sign-up in the Quad 8:00am to 9:30am

Black and Gold Room in Memorial Union from 5:00pm to 7:00pm

LEARNING DISABILITY DAY: Thursday, March 29 in the Pioneer Room in Memorial Union from 5:00pm to 7:00pm

If you have any questions about Disability Awareness Week, please e-mail forthaysstatehonorsociety@gmail.com.

Thursday, April 5, 2018 7:30 PM

In this “tale told by idiots,” the Reduced Shakespeare Company weaves every character and Shakespearean plot device together in a story so comically outrageous it’s no wonder it was hidden away. William Shakespeare’s Long Lost First Play is a comic misadventure that will feel strangely familiar yet excitingly new.

Tickets are available at the Memorial Union Student Service Center, by calling 785-628-5306 or by visiting www.fhsu.edu/encore. Tickets for the general public are $30 reserved and $26 unreserved; for seniors and children ages 5-17, tickets are $28 reserved and $24 unreserved; and for FHSU students, tickets are $21 reserved and $17 unreserved with a Tiger Card.
